Frank Churchill Arrives at Highbury

Mr Elton returned to Highbury as a happy man. His future wife's name was Augusta Hawkins and she came from a family with riches.

Frank Churchill arrived in Highbury at last.

He was a very handsome man and looked sensible and friendly. Emma felt that she would like him.

Frank asked Emma where Jane Fairfax and her family lived. Emma was delighted to give Frank directions to find Mrs Bates' house.

Emma's good opinion of Frank was shaken a little the next day when she heard that he had gone to London just to have his hair cut.

Some neighbours Mr and Mrs Cole held a dinner party. At dinner Emma sat next to Frank. Jane Fairfax sat across the table from them wondering what they were talking about.

After dinner, Mrs Weston sat next to Emma. "The more I think about it, the more I am sure riches valuable possessions.

wondering thinking; guessing.

that I have made a match between Miss Fairfax and Mr Knightley,” said Mrs Weston.

“No, no, you are quite wrong. Believe me this is not a good match or a possible one,” Emma replied.

When Emma invited Jane to play the piano, she looked across at Mr Knightley. He was listening very carefully to Jane and Emma started to wonder about what Mrs Weston had said.
