Adventures Of Huckleberry Finn

The doctor wanted the king to give him the bag of gold for safekeeping. But the king made a sorrowful face and said:

“Gentleman, I wish the money was there; I would have happily given it to you.”

“Where is it, then?”

“Well, when my niece gave it to me for safekeeping, I took and hid it inside my mattress, considering it to be a safe place. But the slaves stole it the very next morning.”

I don’t think the doctor believed him, but he didn’t say anything.

Then the new man said, “I’ve just thought of something that might settle this. Is there anyone here who laid out Peter’s body?”

“Yes, somebody said, “I did it.”

“Then perhaps this gentleman can tell me what was tattooed on his breast?”

niece the daughter of a brother or sister.

tattooed pictorial design on the body made by punctures into which coloured pigments are inserted.
