Oliver and Fagin

Next morning, Oliver woke up very late after a long sound sleep. He found himself alone in the room with Fagin, who was preparing coffee for breakfast.

Soon Dodger entered the room accompanied by a very sprightly young boy called Charley Bates.

“I hope you’ve been at work this morning, my dears,” said Fagin.

“Hard,” replied Dodger, and handed over a couple of pocket-books.

“And what have you got Charley,” asked Fagin. Charley produced four large silk pocket handkerchiefs.

“Well, they are really good ones but you haven’t marked them well, though. The marks shall be picked out with a needle, and we’ll teach Oliver how to do it. Shall we, Oliver?”

sprightly gay.
