The Attack

We began to prepare ourselves for the fight once Silver left the log-house. The pirates attacked us from all directions. Squire Trelawney was a good shot, he along with Joyce and Hunter killed many pirates but it was not an equal fight. Soon a fire shot hit the log-house and it began to fill up with smoke.

Five of the attacking party fell dead before the mutineers retreated, and the result was a win for us. They had not succeeded in getting inside our little fortress, but we had paid a price for our victory. Joyce had been shot through the head, Hunter was unconscious because of his wounds, and the captain had also been wounded.

We feared that the mutineers would return with more force but they did not and we had a quiet evening. Night brought another sad result, Hunter died of his injuries. The captain's wounds were not that serious. The doctor said that he must rest for retreated moved back; withdrew.
